

Personal Safety Skills and Situational Awareness Training For Connecticut Realtors

Violent encounters take only seconds and are over faster than it takes police to respond. Wouldn't it be better to avoid confrontation in the first place? Our personal safety training is a preventative/proactive program that teaches you how to use situational awareness to navigate your surroundings and avoid conflict by exposing criminals and their tactics. You will learn real world safety skills that help you avoid potentially threatening situations, and you will know how to respond in stressful situations.

A 3-Hour Personal Safety and Situational Awareness Training Program Designed for Realtors. Training Includes:

- What Puts Realtors at Risk for Harm?
- Psychological Need to Feel Safe
- Situational Awareness Skills
- Body Language Skills
- Predator Body Language and Common Tactics
- Tools for Making Decisions (Intuition)
- Verbal Defenses and Personal Space
- Every Day Carry, Defensive Hardware and Self Defense Tips
- Public & Travel Safety Tips (public restrooms, parking lots, buses, etc.)
- Home & Family Safety Tips
